1. The Office of Communications has conducted a search of its area, and has contacted all persons who might have some knowledge of the whereabouts of the missing print (NEW MEXICO II by Garo Antreasian). Our search, as a matter of fact, included a long distance call to a retiree in Oregon, who we thought might recall what had happened to the picture.

2. Unfortunately, all efforts to locate the print were to no avail, and we must assume that it was left behind in Headquarters Building when we moved to
